

November 1 & 4, 2023 Lesson 5

(D3: Ministry) The Practice of Biblical Relationships (The "One Anothers")

The Practice of Biblical Relationships (The "One Anothers")
he Wellspring Purpose and Disciplines:
Introduction:
Six Questions to Investigate How God Wants Us to Practice Biblical Relationships within the Local Church:
1. How does God want us to practice loving one another?
a. Love one another (John 13:34-35)
b. Love one another (1 John 3:11, 1 John 3:23)
c. Love one another (1 John 4:11)

^	11	- C - d4			one another?
,	HOW DOES	เ เวกก พลทา	THE TO DEACTIO	e caring to	' nne anntner/

2. How does God want us to practice caring for one another?
a. Care for one another (1 Corinthians 12:25)
b. Bear one another's burdens (Galatians 6:2)
3. How does God want us to practice edifying one another?
a. Build up one another (1 Thessalonians 5:11, Romans 14:19)
b. Admonish one another (Romans 15:14, Colossians 3:16)

4. How does God want us to practice being humble with one another?
a. Give preference to one another (Romans 12:10)
b. Confess your sins to one another (James 5:16)
5. How does God want us to practice serving one another?
a. Serve one another (1 Peter 4:10, Galatians 5:13)

b. Wash one another's feet (John 13:14)

6. How does God want us to practice being unified with one another?
a. Be devoted to one another (Romans 12:10)
b. Let us not judge one another (Romans 14:13)
Summary:
Questions to consider:
Can one be obedient to scripture and not be practicing the one another's?
can one be obcarent to scripture and not be practicing the one anothers:
Can one obediently practice the "one another's" and not be plugged into a local church?
Can one effectively practice the "one another's" by only participating in body life on the Lord's Day?