 GRACE BIBLE CHURCH

"Above all else, guard your heart, for it is the wellspring of life." Proverbs 4:23

Wellspring

"Above all else, guard your heart, for it is the wellspring of life." Proverbs 4:23

PURPOSE:

To equip and encourage the women of Grace Bible Church to shepherd their hearts toward Jesus Christ with the word of God so that they live gospel-transformed lives, thus strengthening the church in its gospel purpose.

Discipline one – the heart

The faithful woman of God shepherds her heart worshipfully toward God through the Word of God, and in particular the gospel.

Discipline two – the home

The faithful woman of God is concerned for those in her home and ministers to them with her heart fixed on God and His Word.

Discipline three – ministry

With a heart fixed on God and keeping her God-given ministry within her home a priority, the faithful woman of God steps into the church and every part of life to shepherd others toward God and the gospel.

"Above all else, guard your heart, for it is the wellspring of life." Proverbs 4:23

PRAYER

An example of how the Wellspring disciplines might shape your prayerful approach to God through His Word:

Heavenly Father,

I intend this time in Your Word to be a prayerful expression of worship of You, desire for You, love for You, need of You and dependence on You. Your Word tells me that as God You are set apart from Your creation in holiness. You are also high above all things and sovereign in Your reign over all things, including my life. Yet how tenderly You stoop toward Your creatures to show love and compassion and countless kindnesses. Your perfect provision sustains all that You have made and glorifies Your great name. You are worthy to be worshiped and I desire to see more of You in Your Word! My pursuit of You through Your word and prayer is only possible through Your Son Jesus Christ, who is my Savior. So I approach You through Him, my Substitute and High Priest – the One whom I love but have not yet seen. His death in my place has secured for me this place before Your throne to express my need to You. So.

"Why have I prayerfully come before You with my Bible open?"

I have Your Word open before me because You have revealed Yourself there more clearly than any other place and I long to know You better. I desire to see You in all Your glory in the pages before me. I simply and humbly draw near to You to study You. Nearness to You through these pages of Scripture is my good. I also have Your Word open before me because I need to learn more of the nature of my sin and fallenness before You, so that I might better understand what danger I truly was in and what dangers still lurk within me through my indwelling sin. I need to see both the sin that provoked Your righteous wrath toward Your Son and Your grace that moved You to act as Savior toward me in Jesus. If I do not fight to have Scripture's view of my sin today, I will easily be duped by sin's deception and become unaware of or indifferent to sin's nearness to me. I then will be vulnerable to sin's entanglements. Sin at that point can then become familiar, even tolerable to me. Finally, sin can then become a delight to me. Before I know it I will be in a position of weakness with sin. I will be in the fight of my life to be free from its entanglements, or may even no longer desire to be free from its entanglements. If I do nothing today concerning my view of sin, my view of sin will only grow dangerously cloudy.

And Your Word is open before me so that I might undergird my life again today with Your saving heart and motive in the gospel of Your Son, who overcame the penalty of my sin and the power of my sin to enslave me. I am here to rehearse Your bedrock promises in the gospel to my soul. There are treasures in the gospel of Jesus that I have yet to discover in my own life and I long to find them and be nourished by them. If I stagger today under the weight of my sin, the gospel will buoy me and provide me the gospel rest I need. And if I'm in a moment of gospel growth and success, rehearsing the gospel will lead me to humbly acknowledge that all the credit and praise goes to You.

Finally, I have Your Word open before me to study what righteousness and holiness of life looks like for one who has been made into a new creature in Christ. In the new man You have created not only a desire for obedience but also a Spirit-dependent equipping within. I need to consistently feed those new God-given desires in my new condition so that they grow. I also need to continuously express my dependence upon the Holy Spirit in this fight for obedience. If I do not study this righteousness and holiness of life and what the blessings of obedience are, I should not expect my desire for obedience to grow. Indwelling sin will do everything possible to quench that desire. By Your grace and power, as I see holiness of life placed in front of me in the commands of Scripture, I will increasingly align my life and behavior with what pleases You.

I desire my heart and mind to be full of You because of what these pages reveal to me about You in all Your greatness. I long for You to spill out of me into my home and wherever You lead me today. All who come into contact with me today must interact with a one whose heart has drawn near to You and is striving to obey You. Their best hope for salvation or for growth in the gospel will come from one who has searched for You in Your Word and gazed upon Your Son in the gospel and who walks by Your Spirit.

In Christ's name I pray,
Amen.

THE GOSPEL: 5 RESOURCES

1. "Preaching the Gospel to Yourself" (Smedly Yates), August 22, 2010

<https://www.gbcaz.org/sermon/preaching-the-gospel-to-yourself/>

(See link for outline with many Scripture references.)

Definition: It is the good news (that's what gospel means, "good news,") that God saves sinners.

God - the holy, omnipotent, sovereign Creator and Judge of the entire Universe.

Sinners - me, and you, and every single human being who has ever lived, who commits high-handed treason against the sovereign Creator of the Universe. God hates sin, and we are sinners, and not primarily because we do bad things. We do bad things because we are by nature sinners.

Saves - we are saved FROM something TO something BY something. If you have adopted the Christian cliché of, "I'm saved," but don't know what you're saved from, or to, or by, there's a problem.

Saved - we are saved FROM sin—sin's consequences, Satan, this anti-God world system, and ourselves. I am saved from myself. And ultimately I am saved from God Himself.

We must be rescued from God and His hatred of sin b/c we are by nature and by activity sinful. God hates sin.

We must be saved from God and His wrath against our sin.

And we are saved TO something. The good news of the gospel is not simply that you get your sins forgiven, but you get your sins forgiven so that you get God, the Treasure of the Universe, the One for whom we were created, the only One who can bring satisfaction, delight, pleasure, and joy, in infinite measure, forever and ever and ever.

We are saved TO God.

We are saved BY God through one and only one thing—the substitute death of His Son Jesus Christ at the cross as a payment for our sins.

So what is the gospel?

The good news is that God saves sinners. God, by the substitute death of His own Son Jesus Christ takes the sin of everyone who would ever believe in Him and places it on His Son and punishes it to the fullest, so that the guilty go free, and we get to be with God forever.

That's the gospel.

2. The Gospel and Personal Evangelism (Mark Dever), ch 2, p 43

The gospel in a minute:

The good news is that the one and only God, who is holy, made us in His image to know Him. But we sinned and cut ourselves off from Him. In His great love, God became a man in Jesus, lived a perfect life, and died on the cross, thus fulfilling the law Himself and taking on Himself the punishment for the sins of all those who would ever turn and trust in Him. He rose again from the dead, showing that God accepted Christ's sacrifice and that God's wrath against us has been exhausted. He now calls us to repent of our sins and to trust in Christ alone for our forgiveness. If we repent of our sins and trust in Christ, we are born again into a new life, an eternal life with God.

BIBLE READING

The primary assignment in Wellspring is to daily meet with God as we read His Word and pray. In Wellspring we use a Bible reading plan to facilitate this.

If you already have a reading plan that is working well for you, please continue with it!

If you do not, there are a variety of plans available in the resource section of your Wellspring notebook. These include a plan for reading the Bible through in 2 years, as well as a variety of plans for reading the Bible in 1 year (e.g., chronologically, by genre, reading both Old Testament and New Testament on a consistent basis, McCheyne's reading plan, or the Discipleship Journal plan which has only 25 reading for each month.)

Some of these plans are numbered rather than dated, which you may find helpful if the dates tend to distract you from the real reason behind the reading. . . to meet with God in His Word! Another option is to use a reading plan which is delivered to you through an app or email—just keep in mind that it's important to choose a plan that helps you remember WHY you are reading the Word—to meet with the God of the Word each day!

There is also a "create your own plan" template designed for you to schedule your own daily reading plan through a particular book of the Bible. Since this option will be completed in a shorter amount of time, you will need to choose another plan when you finish. You could either pick a read-through-the-Bible plan at that point, or you could use the "create your own plan" template to read through a different book of the Bible.

Look through the options and select one to begin by October 1st. (NOTE: You can also find the reading plans posted with the week 1 Wellspring resources on the church website.)

HOMEWORK

Our homework helps us to grow in several ways. There will be the opportunity to reflect on and apply the teaching (LOOKING BACK). There will also be ongoing encouragement to persevere in prayerfully meeting with God in His Word through Bible reading (LOOKING DAY BY DAY). In the "LOOKING AHEAD" section, we will look at verses in preparation for the upcoming lesson. And at times, we will have further study into a particular topic that is helpful in the shepherding of our own hearts as well as in our care for others (LOOKING DEEPER).

Wellspring homework will be turned in to your discussion leader as a way for her to get to know you, pray for you, and encourage you.

BIBLE READING THEMES

When reading through the Bible, it can be helpful to look for a particular theme or topic which can lead to rich insights, greater understanding, and meaningful study. We encourage you to choose a theme to look for as you continue to read through the Word this year. You could mark in your Bible where you find your theme, or you could record what you learn about this theme in a journal (there are notebooks available at the materials table if you'd like one). It could be helpful to record your theme inside your journal or write it out on a card to keep in your Bible.

This is simply a tool you may find useful in keeping you focused in your time in the Word. You can use it to the extent that you find it to be helpful. If you have any questions about this, please talk with your discussion leader.

Some suggested themes:

- Truths about God and His character so that I can know Him better (Father, Son, and Holy Spirit)
- Truths which will comfort and strengthen me in times of adversity
- Principles and examples that will help me grow in my prayer life (may include worship, intercession, thanks, and/or confession)
- Truths that will help me fight sin in my life
- Examples of heart shepherding (both good and bad examples)
- Verses that help me understand or apply one or all of the disciplines—heart, home, ministry
- Verses that show me what pleases the Lord
- Verses to help me cultivate biblical joy and contentment
- Verses that help me rehearse and share the gospel
- Verses that describe God's glory (as suggested in lesson 1)

This version is slightly modified from the original, compiled by Robert Murray McCheyne, in 1842.
The only difference being a slight consolidation of a given chapter split across 2 days where it would make formatting a problem.
